Dear Allison Jung,

I am very pleased to formally offer you admission to Graduate Studies at the University of British Columbia. Congratulations on your acceptance.

Degree Program: Master of Science in Experimental Medicine

Program Start Date: September 1, 2024

Expected Minimum Duration of Program: 12 to 24 months

Tuition Fees: $5,515.71 CAD per year (payable in 3 equal installments of $1,838.57)

Admission Expiry Date: September 1, 2024

Student Number: 55018618

Date of Birth: December 24, 2002

Conditions of Admission: You have been offered admission to UBC based on your electronic application with uploaded unofficial academic transcripts, and on a degree in progress from University of Western Ontario (Bachelor's).

To complete your admission:

- UBC must now receive and verify official versions (normally paper) of your transcripts and, if appropriate, degree certificates and English language translations. UBC transcripts do not need to be submitted. You will be allowed to register in your graduate program after these documents have been received and approved by UBC. Please send all outstanding required documents to UBC immediately (see next page for instructions).
- You must complete your degree in progress with a standing that meets UBC minimum admission requirements and provide official documents (and translations if necessary) confirming completion and conferral of your degree no later than 16 weeks after the beginning of study in your UBC graduate program.

To fulfill the conditions stated above, you may be required to submit two different sets of official documents. First, you must provide one set of official documents as soon as possible to verify the electronic versions you provided in the application. If these documents do not indicate that you have completed your degree in progress, you must later submit another set of official documents which verify degree completion. Failure to fulfil admission conditions could result in the revocation of this admission offer, or the suspension of your UBC registration status and University-sponsored funding until the admission conditions are fulfilled.

We look forward to welcoming you to our UBC community and wish you every success in your program.

Yours sincerely,

Michael A. Hunt, PhD PT
Dean pro tem

INSTRUCTIONS FOR MEETING OFFICIAL DOCUMENTATION REQUIREMENTS

This admission offer is conditional upon our receipt and validation of official (normally paper) documents (transcripts and, if appropriate, degree certificates and English language translations) from each higher education institution you have attended. You have indicated attending the following higher education institutions:

University of Western Ontario

Please check your UBC Graduate Application, My Applications, for a list of specific documents you are required to submit, and to check whether they have been received and validated by UBC. Please allow at least 3 weeks after sending your documents for UBC to update your online account.

Any outstanding required documents should be provided immediately via post. UBC transcripts do not need to be submitted.

All transcripts must arrive at UBC in envelopes which have been sealed and endorsed by the issuing institution or sent via secure electronic delivery by issuing institution. If the official transcript does not indicate the degree name and the degree conferral date, then an official copy of the degree certificate is required. If the official transcripts are issued in a language other than English, then you must also:

- arrange to have sent to UBC one set of all official transcripts issued in their original language
- obtain a certified literal English translation of your transcripts from your home university's translation service or certified English translator
- send the literal English translation to the UBC address above in sealed envelopes endorsed by your university or certified translator

For more information on official document requirements: <https://www.grad.ubc.ca/prospective-students/application-admission/international-students-transcripts>.

If your degree is still in progress, you should still send an interim official transcript immediately.

Please send one copy of all required documents to:

Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies
